Extract A

What we do at Bosch

Bosch is a German engineering and technology business that has over 420,000 employees worldwide. Its aim is to develop products that are 'Invented for life' to improve the quality of living for its customers.

Bosch has a wide product portfolio. Its consumer goods division manufactures household goods such as refrigerators, dishwashers, coffee makers, vacuum cleaners and garden tools. 5

Bosch's mobility division supplies parts and services to the automotive market. This earns Bosch the majority of its revenue. It is a market leader in the supply of car parts and software systems and has numerous manufacturing and engineering factories located around the world. Bosch is increasing its investment in the design of parts and software systems for electric cars and electric bikes, which are growing markets. 10

Bosch has announced that €950m will be invested in an engineering and manufacturing factory in Suzhou, China. The factory will create new jobs to make parts for electric cars.

Extract B

Bosch has exceeded its sales forecasts despite many challenges over the last few years such as the global health crisis, supply chain problems and increasing costs of raw materials.

Selected financial data for Bosch 2021 and 2022

	2021 (€bn)	2022 (€bn)
Revenue	78.7	88.2
Operating Profit	2.8	3.4
Non-Current Liabilities	24.9	24.4
Total Equity	44.3	46.7

Extract C

Investment in innovation

Bosch states that 'one of its biggest strengths is its employees with their expertise, ideas, creativity and commitment.' The basis of the future growth of the business is its innovation. In 2022 it employed 76,000 employees worldwide in research and development (R&D) and spent €6bn developing new products.

5

Extract D

Ownership of Bosch

Unlike many large businesses, Bosch has remained a private limited company rather than converting to a public limited company. It has a unique form of ownership. Ownership is shared between the Bosch family and a charitable foundation that does not have voting rights in the business. Most of the profits are either invested back into the business to build for future growth or donated to charitable causes.

Corporate social responsibility (CSR) at Wells Fargo

US bank, Wells Fargo, was started in 1852 by Henry Wells and William Fargo to help customers build businesses and manage money in a rapidly changing world. Its dedication to finding creative solutions and helping communities continues today. Wells Fargo is world-renowned for its CSR programme. 5

Wells Fargo was awarded a prize in 2020 for its commitment to efficiency and renewable energy in its operations to reduce its environmental impact.

The bank encourages employees to contribute to the communities where they live and work. Through this programme, employees can qualify for funds and donate these to charities of their choice. Wells Fargo donates 1.5% of its revenue to charitable causes. 10

Recent donations have included:

- $390m to help address the housing affordability crisis, to support affordable rentals and house ownership
- $50m to help the economic, social and environmental needs of American Indian and Alaskan native communities 15
- $1.5m for women-led start-ups in the technology and health sectors.

Burger King to renovate its restaurants

Fast-food restaurant chain Burger King announced it will spend $400 million on advertising and renovating its restaurants as part of a strategy to increase its revenue. Burger King is struggling to compete with its main competitor, McDonald's.

Burger King plans to renovate the restaurants with new kitchens and furniture and update the technology. The restaurants will undergo building work to modernise them. Burger King expects to see an average sales increase of 12% in the first year for the renovated restaurants.

The strategy has received support from its franchisees, who will have to provide some of the funding. The franchisees that agree to the changes will see their restaurants temporarily closed but they will be rewarded by receiving a discount on the royalty fees paid to Burger King for up to seven years.

10

Extract H
