5 Simba bought a watch for £1,000 from Jade, the owner of a jewellery shop. When the watch proved to be faulty, Simba asked Jade for a refund. Jade refused.

Simba was very annoyed with Jade. When he got home he drank a large amount of alcohol. Later that evening Simba decided to steal money from Jade's shop. Simba managed to enter the shop through a partially open window and spent a few moments unsuccessfully searching Jade's shop for money. He picked up a gold bracelet from a desk and decided to keep it. Unknown to Simba, the bracelet belonged to Jade's friend, who had asked Jade to value it.

Simba then heard footsteps and panicked. He rushed to the open window and made his escape, forgetting to take the bracelet with him.

Evaluate Simba's criminal liability for property offences against Jade, and whether he can use the defence of intoxication.
